Webster County—Dixon News.

DIXON, June 6. Editor Herald: Thinking, perhaps, some of the readers of your excellent paper, would like to hear something from Dixon, her status &c., I have concluded to give to you a few items as they occur to my mind. In the first place, I must say, that Dixon is, undoubtedly, the prettiest little town in western Kentucky, main street (about a half mile long) is delightfully shaded, in fact, our whole town is promiscuously supplied with umbrageous forest-trees, seemingly inviting the watch-tower and weary to come, that they may, in part, realize "The Mariner's Dream." His hammock swinging loose at the sport of the wind."

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
CAPT. RALPH SHELTON,
Of Nelson County.

County Ticket.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
HON. R. P. HOCKER.

THE Louisville Bar, the Lincoln Bar, and the Greenville Bar have all called on Judge Hargis to refute the charges of perjury and mutilating records preferred against him by T. M. Green.

What will the Stalwarts say now? Congressman Hall, of Florida, has been tried by a United States court, every member of which is a Republican, and a jury, all of whom could take the test oath, and yet he was acquitted by a unanimous vote of the jury.

BROTHER MEXELL, of the Louisville Democrat, is spoken of for the position of Secretary of State, under Dr. Blackburn. He was one of, and probably the first Editor in the State who favored Doctor's candidacy, and if the doctrine, "To the victor belongs the spoils," be true, he ought to be appointed. He is, no doubt, well qualified for the position.

CAPT. W. J. STONE, ex-Speaker of the late House of Representatives, of this State, has withdrawn from the Senatorial race, in the district of which his county (Lyon) is a part. This leaves the contest to Judge Wilkinson, of the Trigg County Democrat, and A. J. Flemming, of Livingston. Judge Wilkinson has a strong competitor. Hon. Oscar Turner M. C., ought to come home and help him out, in return for the valuable aid he received from the Judge, last fall.

We learn from Mr. F. W. Pirtle, who has recently returned from New Orleans, the following information concerning crops, &c.

The corn crop in Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Southern Kentucky, is looking well, and is in fine condition; a large acreage has been planted, a splendid yield is now promised. The crop in Louisiana is much larger than ever known before. The cane crop of this year's planting, is looking fine. The stubble cane is not doing well, supposed to have been injured by the intense cold weather of last winter. The rice crop is cut short on account of the drought, and probably will not be more than a third of an average yield. Cotton is looking fine, and some of it blooming in Louisiana, but in Mississippi and Tennessee is in fine condition but is not in quite so forward a state of growth. Wheat in Tennessee is very fine, and a large acreage, and is now being harvested, and the yield promises very satisfactory. In Mississippi but little wheat is grown. What they have looks well. The wheat in Southern Kentucky also looks well, and the yield will be large. Mr. Pirtle reports the health of the South as very good. There are a few cases of Cholera in New Orleans, caused by imprudent eating. He says the reports about yellow fever is all false, so far as he could find out. It is a pleasure to meet with a man like Mr. Pirtle, who is a close observer. When he travels he sees and takes in the situation, and when he returns he is not only wiser himself by the tour but is prepared to impart his observations to others, which in this instance he has done through the proper medium, his county paper.

THE Republican managers of Ohio county are running the bloody shirt, stalwart, sectional prejudice issues, and are, with all the vindictive energy they can command, denouncing the Democrats for hostility to Union soldiers and sneering at the majority in Congress, calling them rebels, brigadiers, &c. The Republican convention of this county in the face of all this gave brave Union soldiers a thrash. That shows how hollow and false is their pretended love for the Union soldier. Leonard T. Cox, of Rosine, was as brave a soldier as ever shouldered a musket to fight on the Federal side in the late war. He was at the front where he conceived it to be his duty, and went through the whole war. He is a sensible, honorable, upright man, and is the superior in a practical point of view to the man nominated, and is a firm, staunch, consistent Republican. Mr. Cox was unanimously endorsed by the Republicans of his district, which is the strongest Republican district in the county. Mr. Cox got 6 votes in the convention. The man nominated scarcely knew, during the war, what he was. He was a complete political non-descript even for some years after the war, and espoused the Republican cause when he saw a chance for official preferment. He received 43 votes, while three gallant, brave, chivalrous Union soldiers who fought the war through and received honorable discharges, and either of whom are the peer of Dr. Meador, only got 16 votes between them, viz: Cox, 6; David L. Smith, 3; and W. Perry Render, 7. Again in their speeches at that convention the leaders denounced the Democrats for electing Brigadier General of the Confederate army to seats in the United States Senate, but turned right round and nominated Dr. J. W. Meador, who, as Representative of this county in the last Legislature, voted for and assisted to elect Confederate Brigadier General John S. Williams to a seat in the Senate of the United States from this State. Oh, what a hollow mockery is the pretended love of the Republican managers of Ohio county for the soldiers of the Union in the late war.

The News' Variations.

We have been asked why we don't issue a supplement like the HERALD. We give a greater amount of reading matter than most country papers; those so called supplements are nothing more nor less than advertising sheets, gotten up and printed by Louisville merchants free of cost, to any publisher who will do them the favor to distribute them for nothing, to the detriment of merchants who advertise in the legitimate way, and but few papers will have anything to do with them, and they are right.—Ohio County News of May 13th.

Yesterday the News sent out a supplement full of advertisements and Col. Evans' Speeches and appointments. Oh, what a change has come over the spirit of his dream! He says in order to place the speech of Hon. Walter Evans before his readers is the reason it is sent out. The supplement we sent out contained full proceedings of the Democratic convention, the President's veto and the Appellate convention, and not having room in our paper we sent out a supplement, but oh, that was fearfully wrong in us. These papers who refused to have anything to do with these supplements were right, and in one short month the News, by its own standard of right, gets right—wrong. What more is needed to convince the public of the insincerity, inconsistency of the News? It is all things to all men at such times as it suits its convenience.

Who will Require Stronger Proof.

The Republicans in Congress and the Republican papers all over the land have been raising a miserable howl against the repeal of the Soldier-at-the-polls law and say that the South has been carried by the Democrats through fraud and intimidation. They shriek most wildly about the election in South Carolina last fall.

A large number of men were informed upon by the special emissaries of the Administration. Warrants were issued by Republican officials, arrests were made by U. S. Marshals, the cases were set for trial and came up before U. S. Judges, the juries were selected from that class of people who could and did take the iron-clad oath, to the effect that they never participated in the secession or rebellion movement or sympathized or gave aid or comfort. The Supervisors who gave the blood-curdling information against those men were heard in evidence, the country was scoured for witnesses and yet after a full hearing of all these, the cases were so utterly weak and the accusations so glaringly false that the U. S. partisan Judge could not find it in his heart and conscience to even put them on the defense but ordered them to be liberated. Now these are facts of record and, yet, bloody-shirt-revolution shriekers are hawking as loud as ever about the election in the South being controlled by the shot-gun intimidation policy. Who believes it?

Constitutional Convention.

The power of the Legislature as to making appropriations in aid of internal improvements should be clearly defined. We do not say whether that power should be given or not. However we do say that it is getting burdensome to have a bill introduced at every session for the improvement of some river in the State and have the same discussed at the public expense for a week or two when the Legislature should be otherwise engaged.

The question of minority representation is, as yet, an experiment. Some states that have recently adopted new constitutions have adopted the plan of minority representation. A convention would, of course, give the matter due consideration, examine its working in other states and if in their opinion it would be desirable or advantageous it could be adopted. We are not sufficiently acquainted with the practical working of the system to express an opinion. When our present constitution was framed slavery existed in Kentucky and quite a number of sections relate to the powers and duties of the legislature in regard to persons of African descent. Those provisions are now inoperative, and should, by all means, be stricken from our constitution. Another change that could and should in our opinion be made in regard to our elections, I believe there is no officer elected by the people whose term of office is less than two years and we fail to see the necessity of holding elections annually. The terms of office of all officers could and should be so arranged that biennial elections only would be necessary. The election of our State and county officers could as well take place at the time of our elections for members of Congress and President thus saving a large sum annually to the people, and also avoiding the excitement attendant upon too frequent elections. In regard to the judiciary, I believe it is the settled opinion of the best minds of the State that our judiciary system needs revision. The courts established by the constitution became so crowded that it became necessary for the transaction of business and the trial of criminals to establish other Courts, and it has been seriously questioned whether such courts were ever contemplated by the framers of our constitution. The reorganization of the courts of the State is of itself sufficient importance to demand that a convention be called and that at as early a day as it can be legally done. We have no pet measure as to how the courts should be arranged, &c. However it occurs to us that the Judges of the Court of Appeals should be elected by the people of the whole State. The whole State is interested in who shall be the Judges of our court of last resort.

We also think it would be well to make their term of office longer and if necessary render them ineligible for a second term. All of these changes and others will be well and thoroughly discussed and a conclusion arrived at that will be of material interest to our State and add much to its future prosperity. We are not fanatically in favor of calling a convention, but after surveying the whole field have concluded that it is best that it should be done as soon as possible and hope the voters of the State will think seriously of the matter and do what to them seems right in the premises.—F.

Chinese Lecture.

As announced last week, Rev. W. G. Benton gave his entire course of lectures at the Court House.

The subject matter was divided into the following heads:

1st. The Social Life, in which he gave a synopsis of the laws of marriage, the mode of obtaining wives, the sphere of woman, &c; also the modes of travel, transportation, &c.

The second lecture was upon Chinese Civilization, the wonderfully low scale of wages, the degraded condition of the working classes, the obsolete theories concerning the shape and relative sphere of the earth, their erroneous notions of medicine, &c.

The third lecture was a synopsis of the Religions of the Orient. In this lecture Mr. Benton speaks from the standpoint of an impartial observer and student of Sociology. He said he did not desire to convert his audience to Buddhism nor to Confucianism nor to any thing else. He presumed all had their notions of religion and that he could not change their views if he would nor would if he could. He announced himself as an impartial historian of the opinions of others, whose opinions were different from his own, but said he was willing to give credit where credit was due.

The lectures were spiced with anecdotes and illustrations which with a pleasant address and thorough familiarity with the topics discussed rendered them first-class entertainments.

The best classes of our citizens, the best literary critics and professional men composed their audiences and all were well pleased.

Mr. Benton, although a young man, has had rare opportunities as a student of human society, as well as physical and metaphysical science; and his ready illustrations and analysis of the laws of society prove that he has made good use of his time. The result of his study of comparative theology has been to make of him what is known as a "Liberal" in religion.

The systems of Faith in the Orient were shown to be complete and suggestively parallel with our own systems of religion.

The fourth lecture of the series was upon Japan and the Japanese, and gave in one short hour a vast deal of fresh and valuable information upon the LAR-EST SMALL country of modern times.

The whole series of lectures were useful, practical and speed with humor. His power of description and delineation of character is fine, and his command of language fluent. He purposes devoting his life to travel and study for literary work, and if he has health, his success is almost certain and at no distant day he will be heard by the most advanced circles of Scholarship and research.

The audience requested him to repeat the third lecture on Saturday evening, which he consented to do and had the largest audience of the week upon that occasion. We were anxious to learn more about "Neighbor John's" religions.

We liked the lecture and all he said entertained us; but one thing that pleased us most was the evident fact that Mr. Benton was not attempting to build up a dogma, and was being every thing to prove his pet notions, but, on the contrary, he had truth for his polar star and was willing to bend, twist and crush out every sin, prejudice, superstition or dogma that upon investigation did not have facts and common sense as its basis. In other words he is open to conviction, believes in investigation and is willing to accept the truth when reached in this manner. What ever he feels justified in saying from the standpoint of truth as he sees it from all the lights he has or can get hold of, he dares to speak it right out, let it please or displease whom it may. He has a bright future before him and at no distant day will be one of the most noted lecturers of the age.

THE HARTFORD HERALD!

In order to stimulate the Farmers to greater exertions, and induce them to improve the quality of their two great staples, Corn and Tobacco, and at the same time increase the circulation of the HERALD, we offer the following very liberal Premiums, amounting in the aggregate to

The samples in each case must be of the growth of 1879, and produced by the person competing, or on his premises.

These premiums are only offered to citizens of Ohio and the adjoining Counties who are bonafide paid-up yearly subscribers to the Hartford Herald, and continue to be such up to the time of the Fair, which will be held some time in November or December, 1879.

Competent and impartial Judges will make the awards. Remember that all it requires to be competitor for these premiums, is to be a paid-up subscriber to the HERALD. The HERALD is your local paper, and you ought to take it any how, and it is well worth the subscription price. We gave one hundred and five dollars in premiums in 1877. Subscribe now in time. Don't let this opportunity pass.

The samples that take premiums will be kept by us and placed on exhibition in the Herald Office, all the other samples will be sold at public auction, and the proceeds equally divided between the persons entering them, and placed to their credit on subscriptions to the Herald.

You here have a chance to get a paper worth $2.00 for $1.50, and a chance at $200.00 in Premiums besides. If you were to go to the Agricultural Fairs of the Country and contest for premiums aggregating $200.00, you would be charged an entrance fee of from $30.00 to $40.00, but we charge you nothing. Do not forget that the Herald is the pioneer paper of Ohio County. The only one that ever existed six months, and it is now in its fifth year, and your help to sustain it is returned by helping to bring to notice your staple products, improving their quality, and increasing their market value.

Respectfully,

—Hines & Chapman have received returns of a sale of a hoghead of tobacco sold for them at the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse Louisville, which brought the handsome figure of $11 75 per 100 pounds. —The new Drug Store, opened by Thomas & Kimbley, is making a good start in business. They keep a good assortment of pure, fresh Drugs and Medicine, and their salesman, Mr. Frank E. Kimbley, is an experienced druggist, and is always on hand day or night. He rooms over the store.
—The sample of wheat sent to us by Mr. John Foster, Beaver Dam, is the best wheat that has been sent to our office this season. If the specimens, sent to us this year by farmers, from various parts of the county, are to be taken as a criterion of the kind of crops we have, it is clear that the yield is the best, and quality as good as any year since we have been publishing the HERALD.
—Do not forget the picnic at Sulphur Springs next Saturday. Messrs. Aull and Morton assure us that everything will be arranged for a pleasant time. Hon. E. D. Walker will be on hand, and make one of his practical, logical and forcible speeches, upon the political issues of the day, and will give particular attention to finances. For particulars, see posters printed by us.
—Ladies, do you want an Ulster? An Ulster, you know is used to protect your dress from the dust, if it be fine and nice; and if your dress be coarse and common, the Ulster is used to disguise the fact from your neighbor across the way whose spring dress may be finer than yours. You see Ulsters are very nice, and you can be supplied, at ANDERSON'S BAZAAR.
—Dr. Joe T. Miller is making all the other young M. D.'s jealous or envious. He is getting some practice in our neighborhood county, McLean. It said the patient has heart disease, that kind that is contagious, and from the Doctor's actions, his most intimate friends believe he has caught the contagion. Our advice to him is, if suffering from the malady to take the Shortest manner of curing the complaint.
—Go to the Hartford Water Mills for your wool carding and grinding. They are up with their work. You can get your grinding and wool carding done in time to carry them home with you the same day you bring them—thus making one trip do. They have just received a fresh supply of Cate's double and single warped Jeans, which they will sell for cash or exchange for wool. Rolls for sale.
—Remember well and bear in mind that the barbecue at Hines' Mills, on Saturday, June 28, 1879, will be one of the nicest affairs of the season. Every effort is being made by Messrs. Bean, Armendt & Co., to arrange for the pleasure and comfort of all that attend. The candidates will be on hand to enlighten the people on the political issues of the day. Read the posters issued from the Herald office, and see the programme.
—Applicants for examination to teach school in this county, are notified that the Board of Examiners will convene in the office of the Common School Commissioner on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays in each month, until the first of September, after which examination will only take place on the 1st Saturdays in each month. A. B. Baird, C. S. C.
—W. F. McGREY, } Examiners.
—The series of articles on the question of a Constitutional Convention, now being published in the HERALD are written by one of the ablest lawyers and best judges of law in this district. They are, as they should be, attracting general attention. Our readers could not employ their leisure hours more profitably in any other way than by a careful perusal of them. We give the third one of the series in this issue and will continue them, week after week, until the whole ground is covered.
—Died—At her home, near Mount Olivet church, Ohio county, Ky., on Friday, June 13, 1879, Mrs. Susan E. wife of J. B. Woodward. The deceased was a daughter of John Pirtle, now deceased, and was in the 25th year of her age. Her disease was liver complaint, probably combined with other troubles. She was a professor of religion and a member of Providence M. E. church South, and was perfectly resigned, confident to the last, and willing to go. She was interred in the cemetery at Liberty church, on Sunday, June 15, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.
—We have some samples of wheat of this year's growth sent by Mr. Levi M. Wilson, of Cool Springs vicinity. One is of the improved Mediterranean, given this name in the neighborhood because of Mr. Wilson selecting the very best Mediterranean wheat year after year for seed, thus improving it very much. It is as fine wheat as we ever saw. The other is a beardless wheat, and known as the Boden wheat. It is also a fine wheat. These samples are very fine, very large heads and full, plump grains. The wheat crop the county over is about an average crop in quantity and quality.

—Religious.
A two-days meeting will be held at Mt. Vernon, embracing the 14th Sabbath in this month. Preaching Saturday at 11 A. M.
A sacramental meeting will be held at Bethel, 5th Sabbath in this month. Preaching Saturday evening at 4 P. M. T. J. RANDOLPH, Pastor.
—A Royal Feast Awaits Us.
The ladies of town are preparing a Royal Feast for next Tuesday evening, at the Court House. Pyramids of cakes, glaciers of ice cream, gallons of sherbet, pipes of good coffee are a few of the many goodies to be had. The supper is in the interest of the Methodist church here, to pay off its indebtedness. Surely such a grand feast, for such a noble purpose, conducted by the beauty and loveliness of the town, ought to be well patronized. Let us all go and make it one of the most successful entertainments of the kind ever had in this town.
—Fresh Beef.
We will have fresh, good, nice, fat beef and mutton, every Tuesday and Saturday morning. W. H. WILLIAMS & SON.
—Serious Accident.
Mr. James W. Ford, accompanied by his family went out Sunday evening for a buggy ride and went down to his farm below town. In returning, driving through a mudhole one of the traces broke and led the horse out of the shafts and in some way pulled Mr. Ford out. He fell on his left arm, throwing it out of place at the elbow joint, and fracturing the outside bone at the end. He was helped into the buggy, the harness mended, and drove home. Dr. Tyler Griffin was called in to dress the wound and place the arm in joint again. He is doing as well as could be expected, but fears are entertained that the joint will always be stiff. It is quite a misfortune, and keeps Mr. Ford from his business at a time he cannot well afford to be absent.
—Grand Picnic at Sulphur Springs.
We will have a grand picnic at Sulphur Springs on Saturday, July 5th, 1879. Refreshments of all kinds, music, dancing, croquet playing and other amusements. The candidates are invited to attend and speak. Hon. H. D. McHenry is invited and expected to discuss the political issues of the day. Come everybody.

—Ohio County Institute 1880.
The Teachers' Institute will commence in the court house in Hartford, Ky., on Tuesday, the 5th day of August, 1879, and continue 4 days, at which every teacher in the county is required by law to attend. Teachers and trustees will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. A. B. BAIRD, C. S. C. JUNE 16th, 1879. 24-4 f Ohio County News please copy.
—Burglary and Fire.
The store-house of S. A. Williams, McHenry, Ohio county, Ky., was burned down last Saturday night. The fire was discovered in the combing-room of the store about 11 o'clock at night, and when Mr. Campbell, a citizen of the town, reached there he found the back door open and the safe open, also, and the papers all messed up and the fire under such a full headway that it could not be put out. There was $195.00 in the safe, and the general belief is, that it was robbed and fire set to the building to cover the tracks of the burglars. About $300 worth of goods were saved out of the fire. The building is a total loss, and the loss on stock is very considerable, without any insurance whatever. It is a serious loss to Mr. Williams, who had just married a few days before, and had been engaged in building up a fine trade in the future very bright, but he slipped in the bud by this sad misfortune. He has the sympathy of friends and relatives, but this does not replace his store-house or any part of his stock like a good fire policy would have done. It is strange how sadly, men in all kinds of business, neglect insurance. A business not worth insuring is not worth following, and property not worth insuring is not worth owning. Remember Barrett & Brother, Hartford, Ky., represent the Royal Insurance Company of Liverpool, a company that has the largest net surplus assets of any company in the world. They also are agents for the Fire Association of Philadelphia, an excellent, safe, reliable company, and one that has stood all the punies, fires and troubles of the land for 62 years. These companies will insure on liberal and fair terms. While the loss of Mr. Williams is fresh in your minds and taking into consideration the probability of a fire in your own house, store, mill or other property, had you not better at the part of a "Sensible being," call on Barrett & Brother and get your goods, houses, etc., insured? Come along at once—delays are dangerous.
—Hoeker Will be Elected. and I want all who owe me to please call and give me their notes. I don't want any Money—wouldn't have it, but I want your note. W. H. MURRELL. BEAVER DAM, Ky., June 18, 1879. 24-2w

—Doctors Gave Him Up.
"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"
"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters, and only ten days ago his doctors pronounced him incurable."

—The Only Way.
The only way to cure catarrh is by the use of a cleansing and healing lotion, applied to the inflamed and diseased membrane. Snuffs and fumigations, while relieving the irritation, irritate the affected parts and excite a more extended inflammation. Besides, no outward applications alone can cure catarrh. The disease originates in a vitiated state of the blood, and a thorough alterative course of treatment is necessary to remove it from the system. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has long been known as an efficient standard remedy for this disease, but, to insure a radical and permanent cure, it should be used in conjunction with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best vegetable alterative yet discovered. The Discovery cleanses the vitiated blood, while the Catarrh Remedy allays the inflammation and heals the diseased tissues.
—The Greatest Blessing.
A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved by it. Why not try it? See other column. 24-2t
—A Splendid Body
Is a rarity, and the reason that few men possess this standard, is that they neglect themselves and fall into a decline. Some simple trouble of the head, lungs, nerves, liver, stomach, or genital organs develops into a chronic character. The effect is soon observable in the appearance and feelings of the loveliest woman or the handsomest man. "It is never too late to mend," however, if Sandaline is used. The dyspeptic is cured of all trouble. The nervous sufferer is soothed. The victim of the liver complaint, kidney affections, or other disorders, is thoroughly restored. All those who have become afflicted with painful complaints, find in Sandaline a remedy. Sandaline will make the hair soft and glossy, and prevents baldness. Will do just as recommended, used as directed, or money refunded. Price one dollar. Ask your druggist—Atlanta, Dec. 19, '78. Dr. Goumard's West 14th St., N. Y.: "After fifteen years ago I was unfortunate enough to get sick, and through mismanagement it became a chronic disease. I was long troubled with eruptions on my chest, a kind of dry scaly scab, also lumps on different parts of my body. My hair all came out and I was nearly bald. I tried various physicians, visited the hot springs and other places, but found no relief. Sandaline, Sandaline Hair Life and Sandaline Lotion have made a new man of me, and you may use this as your pleasure. V. S. Hutton—Dr. Goumard's great medical work, full of interest, over 250 pages. Price one dollar. Send for it."

A Dead Woman Bottled
Cremation, or the method of burning our bodies after death, created some little stir in this country, but met with very little favor. To place our child, our mother or father into a hot oven, after death, and to stand and gaze at its rapid crisping, burning and conversion into a few ounces of ashes, is, in our estimation, cruel and sinful. Now, ladies, you who are suffering from some female complaint, who have become irregular or have nervous pains and aches, hysterics, nervousness and general prostration, we advise you to use English Female Bitters at once, and claim a new lease upon your lives. It is a wonderful female regulator, and also a quick and powerful tonic, curing chronic cases in an incredible short time.
—TOO MUCH DOCTOR.
Yang Ling says: "My head aches, my bowels bind fast, I can eat nothing, and no longer iron shirt I no sleep, and I make no monee. The medicine man, the doctor they call him, he come and say open mouth, he poke out tongue, he feel me arm, he write on a piece of paper and send it to the medicine shop. I take 'em all, little round fellows, they pain me and I no sleep. My head still aches, and my bowels bind fast and I no git rid of it. I send to the medicine shop one half dollar and get me one bottle Baile's Saline Aperient. I take a little when it bites up, and my head with aches more, and my bowels no bind any more, and I go about my shirt and make monee again. Too much doctor man in this countrye."

Supervision of Senatorial Elections.

Hon. John Whiteaker, of Oregon, the Congressman who made such a rapid trip across the continent to be present at the opening of the extra session of the Forty-sixth Congress, delivered a short but very pointed and vigorous speech last month on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which shows that his constituents made no mistake when they elected him. Mr. Whiteaker said in the course of his speech:

"Mr. Chairman, I have often asked myself the question which I now desire to ask of every gentleman upon this floor, of every citizen of every State in this land, and I will await an answer, feeling that truth and candor will compel one that will sustain my party and myself in our views. If we yield to this claim of right of Federal control of the election of members of Congress and Presidential electors, how long will it be before we will be called upon to yield the right of controlling the election of the members of the State Legislatures? Under the same clause of the Constitution which our opponents are now quoting as showing the right and authority of Federal interference and control of elections, members of this House (the power over the election of Senators being the same) the party in power could claim the right to control the election of our State Legislatures, and we grant the right in the case now under consideration and leave these laws unrepelled we must admit the right in the other and thus little by little all local and State affairs would be virtually absorbed and controlled by the central government and the will of the people be made subservient to the will of a few men in Washington. If it be right in principle for the General Government to supervise the election of members of this House, then why not the election of United States Senators? Congress has as much right to look after the qualifications of the electors of Senators as of members, and foremost among these qualifications is the fact of having been elected in a proper manner. The principle, once recognized and become a part of our system, must lead to the subversion of good or free government. We ought not to let our passions control our judgment, nor should it be warped by party ties and affiliations. The General Government neither makes nor has voters as such; the States prescribe the qualifications of all voters within their limits and they enact the laws under which all general elections are held, and they are, or ought to be, the only power known at the polls."

We have never heard any Republican claim that the Federal supervision should be extended to the election of Senators, but the Republican position will not be a consistent one until the Federal Supervisors and their constables, backed by the army of the United States, shall be present at every session of a Legislature when a United States Senator is to be elected, to prevent fraud. At the recent election of Senator in Kansas not less than four Republican Senators were believed to vote for Senator Ingalls. Why then did not the Republicans in making the election law take the Senate into consideration? The Senate has equal and concurrent power with the House in all ordinary legislation, except that involving money, and the Senate may then only propose or concur with amendments as in other bills. It is true, Senators are not chosen directly by the people, but by the Legislatures, but the laws of the United States prescribe the manner of electing Representatives must be watched and their execution looked after by a horde of Federal officials, those concerning Senators should also receive Federal attention. The discrimination is unreasonable, and Mr. Whiteaker's suggestion is a most excellent one: "Congress has as much right to look after the qualifications of the electors of Senators as of members, and foremost among these qualifications is the fact of having been elected in a proper manner."

The logical result of the Republican assumption, that people must be watched by Federal officials with the army back of them when voting for Representative, is, of course, that they will eventually be under Federal supervision at municipal or county elections. The only way to prevent this intrusion and usurpation is to pluck up the evil by the roots.

Federal "supervision" of elections perpetrated the enormous frauds of 1876 and in 1878, under pretense of "protecting the ballot-box," disfranchised thousands of voters and otherwise fraudulently and feloniously promoted the interests of the Republican party, which invented the election law for the very purpose of feloniously retaining its power. And Mr. Hayes has just declared that these frauds shall continue in behalf of his party. (Counter-Journal.)

Our Caneyville Chip Basket.

Caneyville seems quite dull since the Local option has taken effect. I think Caneyville will come out yet. Wait and give us a chance, as Caneyville has had a hard row to hoe. Time will prove all things.

Mr. Dan Bates is chaffing very few days. Caneyville don't suit him and Dan don't suit it.

Since the local option has taken effect Mr. S. M. Grubb has left Caneyville and gone back to Morgantown where he can get plenty of good whiskey to drink. I guess a good many in Caneyville wish they lived at Morgantown.

Caneyville has become quite reconciled since they noticed, Mr. Joseph Mullholland letter, they have church, prayer meeting and singing every Sunday. Please Joseph write again, I think you can make something out of Caneyville yet.

If you want to get a good price for your frying chickens send for Turpin, as they are worth from $4 to $6 dollars per dozen at this place, and the old ladies think that is very low.

Want several good hands to help bury the dead, as Local option has gone into effect, at this place a good many sick boys. "Dr. can you give me a prescription I am sick," that is all the go at Caneyville. The boys all wish that they were doctors.

Miss Helen Downese, of Short Creek, is in town visiting Mr. S. C. Downese, her brother. She has many calls—Mr. Frank Turpin every 15 minutes.

Miss Millie Shaffer is in town visiting her old school mates, Miss Sadie Wilson and others, glad to see Miss Millie any time as she is very lively.

A Great Literary Work.

A work that every lover of good literature wants at constant command, because, while it is superlatively attractive and interesting in itself, it is also a key and index to all other good English literature, enabling one to see and judge for himself what authors and books are most desirable for him to read—such is the new edition of CHAMBERS' CYCLOPEDIA OF ENGLISH LITERATURE. In its nearly 3,500 pages it gives biographies of all noted British and American authors from earliest times to the present, with choice and characteristic selections from their writings, thus being a concentration of the best productions of modern intellect. It is published in eight handy and beautiful volumes, at prices so low as to seem really astonishing to most book buyers, viz.: in paper, complete, $2.00; cloth, $3.00; half morocco, $4.50; half morocco, $5.50. From these low rates a discount of 10 per cent. is allowed to those ordering before June 1, and a further discount of 10 per cent. is allowed on orders in club of five or more. It is not sold by dealers or agents, but only to buyers direct by the publishers, the AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE, 55 Beekman street, New York, who will send specimen pages, etc., free, on request.

The Latest Invention in Useful Household Articles.

Within the last few years there has been expended a great deal of inventive thought and genius upon what may properly be classed as household articles, the most noted results of which are the production of the sewing machine, the wringer, the washing machine, the carpet sweeper, &c. Almost every week we chronicle the advent of some new invention by which the cares and labor of housekeeping are lessened, and woman's work made easier.

The newest thing to challenge our attention and gladden the heart of the housekeeper, is what is called the NOVELTY BRUSH, a new and improved brush, a very simple contrivance designed to firmly hold in position any kind of a brush or duster; having an extension handle that enables one to wash or dust windows, walls or ceilings without the aid of a step ladder. That is one of its conveniences, and it is also one of the best carpet sweepers in the market, holding the brush firmly at an angle. It cleans the carpet thoroughly, raises no dust, and does not wear the carpet like the ordinary broom or brush, and will outwear a half a dozen brooms. As a handle for the scrubbing brush it is the best device ever made, no more kneeling on the floor, no more back aches or sore fingers.

As a carpet stretcher alone it is worth its cost, as a carpet of any size can be laid evenly without any of the labor and vexation usually attending such work. It is strong, simple, thoroughly made, cannot get out of order, has no screws, levers or hinges, is compact, cheap and durable.

It is manufactured by Brown & Co., Cincinnati, the well known manufacturers of useful household articles, and is sold only by their agents to housekeepers. The real utility of this article will at once be seen by those most interested, and we predict for it a large sale. Every housekeeper in the land will want one.

Any reliable lady or gentleman wishing to employ an efficient, well educated and well paid agent for this county, which can be done by enclosing a stamp for descriptive circular and terms, to Brown & Co., 22-54 Grand Hotel Building, Cin., O.
